

Executive Proclamation State of South Dakota Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty and concern for one's fellow man; and,

WHEREAS, Elizabeth Blossom has devoted her life to the betterment of her community, the caring and sharing with family and friends, and the day-to-day giving and loving which make South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

WHEREAS, Elizabeth Blossom has reached her 90th birthday, an occasion of joy and celebration; and,

WHEREAS, Elizabeth has given much to South Dakota during her lifetime and it is fitting that we honor Elizabeth on this momentous occasion; and,

WHEREAS, On behalf of a state grateful for the benefits derived from Elizabeth Blossom's years as a productive and outstanding citizen of South Dakota:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim March 13, 1989, as in South Dakota, and I join her many friends and relatives in wishing Elizabeth a very happy birthday and many more years of health and happiness.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Seventh Day of February, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Nine
